

Ex. #193

TANGKU TRUCE
31 May 1933

(English translation by Chinese Division, I.P.S., from a copy of the Chinese text furnished by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Republic of China)

- (I) The Chinese Army shall be immediately withdrawn to the West and to the South of the line running through Yen-Chin, Chan-ping, Kao-Li-Ying, Shun-Yi, Tungchow, Hsiang-Ho, Pao-Ti, Ling-Ting-Kou, Ning-Ho and Lu-Tai. The Chinese Army henceforth shall refrain from taking all acts of provocation or disturbance.
- (II) The Japanese Army, in order to ascertain the actual carrying out of the provisions in (I), may from time to time use aeroplanes and other means for observation. This shall be accorded due protection and various facilities by the Chinese side.
- (III) The Japanese Army, having ascertained the carrying out of the provisions in (I) by the Chinese Army, shall not cross the above defined line in pursuit and shall all voluntarily withdraw to the Great Wall line.
- (IV) The maintenance of order in the region South of the Great Wall and to the North and to the East of the above defined line shall be entrusted to the Chinese police force. The said police force shall not employ armed groups which might provoke the feelings of the Japanese.
- (V) This Truce shall come into effect immediately after being signed and sealed.
